

Dr. JoAnne Worthington Groseclose, DNP, MEDSURGE, ACUE

JoAnne graduated from the Bethesda Hospital School of Nursing in November 1994. She holds BSN, MSN, and DNP degrees from Mount St. Joseph University. For 32 years, she was a bedside nurse with TriHealth.

Currently, she is tenured faculty at Cincinnati State, teaching fundamental courses in the ADN program and community population-based health in the RN to BSN completion program. She also works PRN with Ohio Living Hospice and Home Health.

JoAnne is a member of ANA, STTI, and OADN, has Medical-Surgical nursing certification, ANCC, and effective college instruction certification, ACUE.

She is married to her best friend, and they have 5 cats.